

Doing the Work: Celebrating 50 Years of MCAAHC

TIMELINE OF EVENTS
1999-2009

1999-2009

2000

- BDM hosts "Summer 2000", a youth summer camp offering classes on African fabric arts, oral history and archaeology techniques, and exhibition techniques

- On May 28th, museum exhibition "Doorway to Africa: African Art & Artifacts from the Permanent Collection of the Banneker-Douglass Museum" opens
- In June, BDM hosts the five day "Statewide Teacher and Administrator Institute" to provide participants with information about African American Marylanders through presentations, workshops, and on-site field trips
- On October 12th, MCAAHC and BDM partner with the Maryland Division of Tourism, Film, and the Arts and Parvenir to honor Kevin Clash, the creator of Sesame Street's Elmo, for the event "Celebrating Maryland's Heritage"

2002

2003

- MCAAHC hosts the Groundbreaking Ceremony for the Banneker-Douglass Museum's building expansion

- BDM reopens with permanent exhibit "Deep Roots, Rising Waters: A History of African Americans in Maryland"

2006

#WeRiseMaryland

 @bannekerdouglassmuseum

1999-2009

2007

- On October 27th, the Sylvia Gaither Garrison Library is dedicated at the Banneker-Douglass Museum

- BDM worked with the Maryland State Teachers Association's Radical Readers Program which culminated with an event at the museum
- Exhibition, "SoWeBo", guest curated by Baltimore photographer Martha Cooper, opens

2008

2009

- BDM hosts two interns through the IMPART program from May through August
- On November 17th, Chair Ted Mack speaks at the dedication of the Dred Scott Plaque at City Hall in Frederick, Maryland